S18-0508 Fraud

Complainant: VIDITZ-WARD, ANTON D
570 SOCIETY DRIVE, TELLURIDE, CO 81435
Incident Address: 570 SOCIETY DRIVE

Time Reported: 17:02

Time Occurred between: 17:02:48 04/09/18 - 17:02:48 04/09/18

Narrative: A San Miguel County resident reported receiving two computer-generated-voice messages on his telephone warning him there were warrants out for his arrest on very serious charges, and if he wanted to save himself he needed to call immediately. Each call gave a different number, and when he called one of them, the number rang busy, but when he called the other one, the call was announced "refused." These calls are scams, and should not cause you any worries if you receive one. The best single thing which you can do if you receive one of these calls is to use your computer to visit the FTC's "IC3" site, and file a complaint with the federal government about the scam attempt.
